

DR. J.E. CHURCH AWARDS

- 1998 - Snowbird, Utah
Adam Winstral, Kelly Elder and Robert Davis
"Characterization of Wind Induced Snow Redistribution with GIS Derived Parameters"
- 1999 - South Lake Tahoe, California
Pascal Storck and Dennis P. Lettenmaier
"Predicting the Effect of a Forest Canopy on Ground Snow Pack Accumulation and Ablation in Maritime Climates"
- 2000 - Port Angeles, Washington
Thomas Painter, Bradley Paden, and Jeff Dozier
"Automated Spectro-Goniometer for the Measurement of Snow Bidirectional Reflectance".
- 2001 - Sun Valley, Idaho
Noah Molotch
"Analysis of the Spatial Variability of Snow Cover Depletion in an Alpine watershed"
- 2002 - Granby, Colorado
Christopher Hiemstra
"Spatial Relationships between Snow and Ecosystem Properties in a Wyoming Alpine Treeline Ecotone: Linking Simulations and Observations"
- 2003 - Scottsdale, Arizona
Thomas Pagano
"A Poor-Man's ESP: Statistical Hydrograph Trace Adjustment"
- 2004 - Richmond, B. C.
Jessica Lundquist
"The Effects of Basin Scale on Diurnal Streamflow Timing"
- 2005 - Great Falls, Montana
Aynur Sensoy, et al. (Turkey)
"Physically-Based Point Snowmelt Model Application and Its Spatial Distribution with Radiation Index Method in Turkey"
- 2006 - Las Cruces, New Mexico
Eric LaMalfa, et al.
"Differences in Water Balance Between Aspen and Conifer Communities: The Fate of Spring Snowmelt in a Northern Rocky Mountain Watershed"
- 2007 - Kailua-Kona, Hawaii
Brian J. Harshburger, et al.
"Evaluation of Streamflow Forecasts for Multiple Basins in the Pacific Northwest Using an Enhanced Version of the Snowmelt Runoff Model".

DR. J.E. CHURCH AWARDS

- 2008 – Hood River, Oregon
Joseph H. Casola, et al.
“Assessing the Impacts of Global Warming on Snowpack in the Washington Cascades”
- 2009 - Canmore, AB - Canada
Kara Przeczek, et al.
"Field Testing and Comparison of Four Snowmelt Model Approaches in the Quesnel Highlands, Interior British Columbia"
- 2010 - Logan, Utah
Rory Cowie, et al.
"Estimated Residence Time of Two Snowmelt Dominated Catchments, Boulder Creek Watershed, Colorado"
- 2011 - Stateline, Nevada
Mark S. Raleigh, et al.
"What Lies Beneath? Comparing MODIS Fractional Snow Covered Area Against Ground-Based Observations Under Forest Canopies and in Meadows of the Sierra Nevada"
- 2012 - Anchorage, Alaska
No award presented
- 2013 - Jackson, Wyoming
No award presented
- 2014 - Durango, Colorado
Abby Lute
"Projected Changes in Snowfall Extremes and Variability in the Western US"
- 2015 - Grass Valley
Jared Oyler
"Temperature Trend Biases in Gridded Climate Products and the SNOTEL Network"
